

Peter Cargill to be inducted into Hall of Fame

Wednesday, 24 October 2007

Former national player and coach, Peter Cargill, and former treasurer of KSAMLA Ruddy Thelwell, will be the first inductees into the Kingston and St. Andrew Masters Football League Association Hall of Fame on Saturday, October 27 at the Harbour View stadium.

Coach Cargill, who played for Pelicans Masters, was a pivotal member of the historic Jamaican team that played in the 1998 FIFA World Cup finals in France while Mr. Thelwell served as KSAMLA 's treasurer for 18 years, and died in 2005 after a brief illness.

Saturday's induction begins at 3:00 pm, and will be followed by a hall of fame game between the NCB Capital Markets All Masters and the Central Masters All.
