

Former Reggae Boy out on bail following arrest for ganja

Monday, 24 December 2007

Former striker for the national football team, Onandi Lowe, is crying foul following his arrest by the police on charges of possession of marijuana.

Mr. Lowe, was released on bail after being arrested in Spanish Town, St. Catherine on Sunday December 23.

He told RJR News Centre that he was unfairly targeted by the police as the marijuana was not found in his possession.

He said he was arrested and charged despite the confession of another passenger that the ganja and other contraband belonged to him.

Mr. Lowe was released on $20,000 bail and is scheduled to appear in court on January 8.

The police report that they stopped the vehicle Mr. Lowe was travelling in along the Spanish Town bypass and conducted a search during which, 42 sticks of ganja were found.

Four other persons who were in the vehicle including a woman were also arrested.

Onandi Lowe was part of the Reggae Boys team which qualified for the 1998 FIFA World Cup.

He was most recently a member of the Portmore United Football team.
